SALESIAN MISSIONARY INTENTIONS

IN THE LIGHT OF THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR 2017

For Salesians Who Work in Conflict Areas

That they may be Builders of Peace through the weapon of “education” and the proclamation of the “Prince of Peace”.

Salesians are present in many areas of the world where there are military, social, political, ethnic, and religious conflicts, often manipulated by commercial and business interests; interests that have no compassion on the innocent, or the weakest. The mission of the Salesian Family in these areas is to be free, prophet and builder of peace with the tenacity of education for coexistence and human dignity, supported by the One who “is our peace”.
