A Beautiful Spiritual Heritage

The first messages that were given in the Strenna are recorded in our tradition,
They date back to the decade of 1850

From the early years of the Oratory

Towards the end of the year, Don Bosco had begun to deliver, a Strenna to all his young people:

- in General

- in Particular

At the end of his life, Don Bosco summoned Don Rua and Mons. Cagliero, and gave some last recommendations for them and for all the Salesians:

1. He blessed the houses in America and the confreres present in those lands;
2. He blessed all the Italian Cooperators and their families;
3. He asked them to make a promise to love each other as brothers...

... and to recommend frequent Communion and devotion to Mary Help of Christians.

Don Rua describes that moment and these words, adding that Don Rua describes that moment and those words, adding that «this could serve as the Strenna for the new year, to be sent to all the Salesian houses»

Don Bosco with the heart of the Good Shepherd

1. The heart of the Lord Jesus imprints everything we do in ministry and is an essential reference point for us.
2. The charism of Don Bosco was raised up by the Holy Spirit for the good of the Church.

This is what we call the Salesian charism

«It is enough that you are young for me to love you very much» is the word and, even before that, the option for educational excellence.

Don Francesco Dalmazzo in 1892:
«One day I saw Don Bosco leaving Don Rua and myself who were accompanying him to help a young mason to drag an overloaded cart. The young man felt helpless and started to cry. This was in one of the main streets of the city»

For Don Bosco, being a man who gives from the heart meant being totally dedicated to the good of young people and giving them all his energy until his last breath

Like Don Bosco

In the history of God and mankind

1. Don Bosco had the ability to read the signs of the times.
2. He looked through the eyes of one who knew how to look at history to recognize in it the signs of God's Presence. The present history, not the past!
3. Today we - the Salesian Family - are called to ask Don Bosco to teach us to read the signs of the times, to help young people.

ALWAYS WITH THE YOUNG

- Spending time with them and among them.
- Meeting them in their daily lives.
- Getting to know their world.
- Loving their world.
- Helping them to take responsibility for their own life.
- Awakenning their sense of God.
- Encouraging them to have high goals in life.

What is God saying to us and asking us through the young people that we meet

What is God saying to us and asking us through the young people that we meet

WITH the young

Showing our Pastoral Predilection

- Children.
- Boys.
- Girls.
- Young people

Showing the same predilection that Don Bosco had, with a real 'passion', seeking their good, directing all our energies to this end.

Our Communities

Every group of our Family

Must seek to acquire a "visibility" that demands:

- Discernment
- Options
- Sacrifice

- Service freely given
- Fraternal joyful personal relations
- A community plan of prayer, meetings and service

*It requires, more than ever, an “open house”, with a variety of initiatives to bring people together and proposals that respond to the problems of the young people of the territory

WITH the young
FOR the young

FOR the young especially the poorest

Pope Francis challenges us:
"Go to the people on the margins"

For us in the Salesian Family,
the margins are an essential element of our Salesian DNA

Archivio
ANS

For us in the Salesian Family,
the margins are an essential
element of our Salesian DNA

FOR the young

because they have a right to adult role models who are believers

Young people want to meet Christians who are courageous but "normal"

- whom they can admire
- and imitate

FOR the young

for whom personal meeting will be an opportunity for listening and accompanying them

We have an opportunity to walk together with them leading them back to Jesus, to rediscover his life and his message

The Challenge

Be committed to cultivating:

- Personal encounter
- Spiritual accompaniment
- The development of their potential and capacity

It is a question of accompanying their growth, helping them to discover their identity and realize their life plan.

FOR the young

because young people especially the poorest, are a gift to us

« Young people are a gift to us »

Our works and services are to care for young people who are

- Alone
- Affected by violence,
- In family conflicts,
- Emotionally wounded,
- Confused,
- In suffering and pain

The Good News drives us to listen to them and meet their needs unconditionally

BICENTENARIO DELLA NASCITA
1815 • DON BOSCO • 2015

A first Centenary

Don Albera suggests a double approach:

- Spread Devotion to Mary Help of Christians
- Make Don Bosco and his work better known Between 1914 and 1915 there was a series of tragic events:

- 1. Natural disasters
- 2. Painful events
- 3. First World War

Celebrations

There were celebrations in Valsalice and Castelnuovo with a double pilgrimage:

15 August

Visit to the tomb of Don Bosco

16 August

To Castelnuovo, where he had been baptized

In America

They were able to celebrate both Centenaries

A stylized, dark brown profile of Don Bosco's head and shoulders, facing right. He has a thick beard and is wearing a white clerical collar. The background is a light blue gradient with abstract white and blue shapes on the right side.

In celebration of the Bicentenary

- Thanksgiving to God for what happened at the Becchi, for God's active intervention.
- Celebrate the gift that God made of Don Bosco to the Church and to the world

Mother and Teacher of Don Bosco

- We recognize the many gifts of Don Bosco that came from HER.
- God found in Mamma Margaret the human instrument to form the heart of Don Bosco.

Values that John inherited from his family:

- Wisdom of country folk
- Shrewd common sense,
- A sense of work,
- Grasping what is essential,
- Industriousness,
- Optimism in every trial,
- Perseverance in times of misfortune,
- Resilience after setbacks,
- Joy always and everywhere,
- Spirit of solidarity,
- Lively faith,
- Love for truth
- Affection
- Sense of welcome and hospitality ...

Our language teacher,
"I would say she personified the 'Gratuity'."

...

For Don Bosco the most important value was the love for the poor and the suffering.

Don Lemoyne testifies:
"I could say she personified the Oratory"

Don Bosco brought Mamma Margaret to the Oratory to become the mother of the boys

For 10 years her presence had a profound impact on the style of relationships in the Oratory: the family spirit which is the heart of Salesian Spirituality
